Letter from the Director

As we bid farewell to the winter doldrums and eagerly welcome the blossoms of spring, we invite you to rejuvenate your spirits at the Wayne County Public Library.”

Escape the monotony of winter by exploring the vast array of books, movies, and more waiting to be discovered on our shelves or online. Whether you’re in the mood for a heartwarming novel, an engaging documentary, or a captivating mystery, we have something for every taste. Need help finding something new? Just ask us! Let us help you find your next favorite book or movie.

But the library doesn’t stop there! Check out our wide variety of upcoming spring programs and events. From book clubs to crafting, from story times to animal encounters, there’s no shortage of exciting opportunities to help shake off those winter blues!

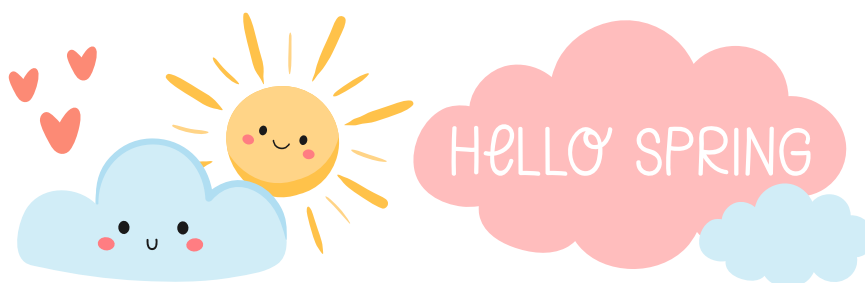

We are especially excited to unveil a series of programs leading up to the total solar eclipse on April 8th. These programs, designed to make this extraordinary moment even more memorable, feature presentations lead by local astronomy experts and hands-on activities for all ages. Check the program listings to find something that interests you.

Your library is here to help you find the perfect escape, whether it’s within the pages of a book or through the variety of activities available at all of our locations. If the cold weather has left you feeling a bit sluggish, there’s no better remedy than a visit to your local library.

Happy reading,

Jennifer Shatzer

[Dalton] Tuesday, March 12 at 6:30 PM

[Creston] Monday, March 25 at 4 PM

[Shreve] Thursday, March 28 from 6:30 – 7:30 PM

Join Hoover-Price Planetarium Director, Suzie Dills, to learn the science behind eclipses, the timeline for the April 8th event, how to safely view the eclipse, and how past civilizations viewed solar eclipses.

Sun and Moon Eclipse with Polymer Clay

WS Thursday, March 14 at 6 PM

[West Salem] Join Amanda from the Canton Museum of Art as we make a sun and moon eclipse with polymer clay. Materials will be provided.

Total Eclipse Tea Party

C Saturday, March 23 at 11:30 AM

[Creston] Join us for a Saturday afternoon of tea, snacks, and a craft. Wear your tea party finest. For children 5 years old and up, accompanied by an adult.

Countdown to the Eclipse

WS Monday, April 1 from 2 – 6:30 PM

[West Salem] Join us for several Eclipse-themed crafts and activities. There will be clay sculptures, photo-paper creations, paintings, and more. Come see what we've dreamed up! All ages are welcome. [No registration required.]

Family Solar Eclipse Program

R Monday, April 1 at 6 PM

[Rittman] Come in and learn about the upcoming solar eclipse, make a craft, and have some fun.

Solar Eclipse 2024 with The Nature Center

W Tuesday, April 2 at 6 PM

[Wooster] On April 8th, 2024, Northeast Ohio will be treated to a Total Solar Eclipse. The moon will completely block out the sun for a few minutes and plunge the sky into a kind of twilight. Robin Gill from the Nature Center will help you understand the eclipse, demonstrate how to view it safely, and answer your questions.

Eclipse Excitement

S Saturday, April 6 from 11 AM – 1 PM

[Shreve] Join us for some fun eclipse-themed crafts. We'll make our own eclipse timeline with cookies, sunlight activated bracelets, and take still-life pictures using the sun's rays. Snacks and supplies provided.

Total Eclipse of the Sun Science Saturday

DO Saturday, April 6 from 11 AM – 1 PM

[Doylestown] A total eclipse of the sun will take place right here in Doylestown on April 8. Let's take a couple of hours to learn about the sun, the moon, and the eclipse with hands-on activities. We will also make eclipse T-shirts; bring a T-shirt if you would like to make one.

The Great American Eclipse Show by Whiz Bang Science

W Saturday, April 6 from 11 AM – 12 PM

[Wooster] Whiz Bang Science is here to help you prepare for the total solar eclipse on April 8th! Learn about the nature and history of eclipses, but even more importantly what to look, listen, and feel for during the eclipse, and how to safely observe the eclipse. Registration begins March 11.

Eclipse Day Celebration

C Monday, April 8 from 1 – 3:30 PM

[Creston] Join us at the library for eclipse crafts and snacks as we get ready for the big event. Dress according to the weather and we will go outside to view the total eclipse together.

Total Solar Eclipse in Rittman

R Monday, April 8 at 2:30 PM

[Rittman] Weather permitting, we will venture into the courtyard to safely view the eclipse. We will discuss animal behavior during an eclipse as they prepare for darkness in the middle of the afternoon! Our presentation will help students understand the Earth-sun-moon system to discover which conditions are necessary for a total solar eclipse to occur right here in Rittman, Ohio! Jim Trogdon and Harvey Landis, Field Station Managers, Morton Salt Environmental Education Lab, and Christine Lorence, STEM teacher, Coventry Schools, will be your presenters. Special viewing glasses will be provided.

Solar Eclipse Watch Party

W Monday, April 8 from 2 – 3:30 PM

[Wooster] Come on down to the Wooster library to watch the 2024 total solar eclipse! We'll have activities in the Conference Room and a limited supply of eclipse glasses on hand. Everything will be available on a first-come, first-served basis. For all ages, in the Conference Room. The partial eclipse begins around 2 PM, reaching totality from 3:13 – 3:17 PM. [No registration required.]

WoosterCrafts

Calling all crafters!

We want to showcase the many talented crafters and artists here in Wayne County! Whether you're a beginner or a master of your craft (or somewhere in between), we invite you to share your work in our second annual WoosterCrafts display.
