

Kids in Camp

By: Clara Cardinal

“Brooklyn,” her mom called from upstairs. “Pack your bag for camp. Then she packed her bag immediately. After dinner she went to bed eager to go to camp tomorrow. Accidentally she slept in and her mom was trying to wake her up. Brooklyn said “I’m going to be late for camp! So then she quickly got dressed, grabbed her bag, went down stairs, and rushed out the door and her mom started the car and then they drove away to camp. “We finally got here after a really long drive,” said Brooklyn. She felt car sick. Brooklyn said “come on mom come on and hurry up! They both walked into the camp. While her mom was checking up Brooklyn, she ran to her cabin. Brooklyn’s mom said “goodbye” and left. She was not actually late after all because there were still kids walking into their cabins. At that minute she was walking into cabin number 6 and she ran into a girl named Emma. Emma seemed nice to Brooklyn so they became friends. There were a few other girls there too, named Kya, Harper, Isabell, Maddy, Suesan, and Rebebeca. They all knew they were going to be friends. There was another girl named Cassie, but they could already tell she was going to be mean. When it was time to pick their spot in the room to stay, Maddy was going to pick her spot in the room but Cassie picked the spot that Maddy wanted. So Maddy had to sleep on the tiniest bed in the back of the room where the spiders are. Maddy hates spiders more than anybody. Brooklyn knew Cassie was doing this to get on Maddy’s nerve, and she was not fine with Cassie getting away with this. So Brooklyn told the counselor, and the counselor talked to Cassie. Brooklyn couldn't hear what they were saying, but she knew Cassie was up to no good. The counselor finally came over to Brooklyn and said "one more problem and I will call your mom to pick you up". Brooklyn knew she could not tattle on Cassie anymore because she would just keep lying. Brooklyn tried to move on with her day. When it was bedtime Brooklyn let Maddy sleep with her. When everybody woke up they went canoeing. Half way through the canoeing trip with Cassie's paddle she flipped over Kya's, Isabell's, and Susan's canoe! They were soaking wet! They swam to the dock. The rest of the day was terrible. That day Cassie put bugs in everybody's food and they were all brushing their teeth for hours! After the day was over they went to bed. In the middle of the night Cassie and Brooklyn went outside to talk. Brooklyn said "why are you being mean and ruining everyone's days in camp" She responded I just want kids to think I'm cool. Well, being mean is not cool. The next morning they told the girls and they were all friends. The last day was a great day. They had so much fun. Finally they gave hugs and went home.
