GENEALOGY PROGRAMS

GENEALOGY IN-PERSON PROGRAMS:

Genealogy 101

Friday, June 4 from 2 PM – 4 PM

Are you interested in researching your family's history? Have you been researching for a while but feel overwhelmed with collected information? Are you at a brick wall and do not know where to go? This workshop introduces beginning steps in researching your family. Tools recommended for researchers at all levels of research will be discussed.

U.S. Census and Vital Records

Friday, June 11 from 2 PM – 4 PM

These are two types of resources used by family historians at all levels of research. We will explore these resources and the types of information that may be gleaned from them. As a bonus, the 1950 U.S. Census will be released in 2022. What can researchers expect from this latest census?

Court and Property Records

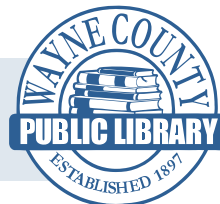

Friday, June 18 from 2 PM – 4 PM

Many researchers are intimidated by these two types of resources. However, these records may include a wealth of information to help in your research. Come and discover what types of information may be found in these record types.

Programs will be held at the Oak Hill Park Pavilion: 3000 Oak Hill Rd; Wooster, OH 44691. ADA accessible. Social distancing and masks are required for all non-vaccinated patrons 10 and up.

[Limit: 10. Registration required.]

GENEALOGY PROGRAMS

GENEALOGY VIRTUAL PROGRAMS ON ZOOM

Genealogy 101

Tuesday, July 13 from 6 PM – 7:30 PM

Are you interested in researching your family's history? Have you been researching for a while but feel overwhelmed with collected information? Are you at a brick wall and do not know where to go? It may be time to return to the basics. This class will discuss tools that may help individuals regardless of his or her research skill level.

Census Records

Tuesday, July 20 from 6 PM – 7:30 PM

Census records may be found at the local, state, or federal level. This class will look in-depth at federal census records from 1790-1940.

Vital Records

Tuesday, July 27 from 6 PM – 7:30 PM

Birth, marriage, and death records may provide useful information for researchers. This class will explore vital records and look at substitute records when you are unable to find the birth, marriage and/or death records.

Court Records

Tuesday, August 10 from 6 PM – 7:30 PM

Many researchers shy away from court records because they do not understand the legal terms. This class will give a brief overview of the Ohio court system and how these types of records can provide an insight into your family's history.

Property Records

Tuesday, August 24 from 6 PM – 7:30 PM

Land deeds and tax records find a useful place in the world of genealogy research. This class will take a look at how to access land deeds and tax records and the types of information you may find within these record types.

All virtual programs will be held through the Zoom platform.
[Registration is required.]
